POSITION OVERVIEW

The position is responsible for developing evidence-based policy advice and advocating for legislative and policy reform to improve outcomes for Aboriginal people in the Northern Land Council's (NLC's) region. This includes engaging with Government agencies and other stakeholders to promote the rights, interests and aspirations of Aboriginal people, with a focus on social justice advocacy. The role will also support broader policy work on environmental matters, water policy and economic strategy.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES & ACCOUNTABILITIES

- In collaboration with the Manager, develop evidence-based policy advice for the Chief Executive Officer, the Chairperson, and Full Council on relevant issues.
- Undertake research and develop policy positions, submissions, reports and discussion papers on relevant issues for various audiences.
- Represent the NLC on appropriate committees and working groups, and engage with government officers and other stakeholders on policy related matters as required.
- Support traditional Aboriginal owners and native title holders to represent and protect their rights and interests in policy, law reform and delivery of Government services and programs.
- Raise awareness of the interests of Aboriginal people through effective communication.
- Liaise with other branches within the NLC in the coordination of interdisciplinary projects and policy development, and represent the branch on inter-branch projects.
- Follow all NLC policies and procedures to make sure work is carried out to the right standards.
- Take on other reasonable tasks within your role, classification, service area, and skills when needed.
- Follow the NLC Code of Conduct, working in a professional, respectful, and collaborative way with your team and the wider organisation.
- Take part in performance reviews and any learning and development needed for your role.
- Look after your own health and safety and make sure your work does not put others at risk.
- Report any hazards or incidents to your supervisor straight away and complete any required reports on time.
