STATEMENT OF DUTIES		Effective Date of Document: 23 November 2017
Title: UnionLink Advisor	Classification: Level 4-5	Office No: 48-52
ROLE At both levels, UnionLink Advisors operate using telephone and email to provide industrial advice, interpretation and information to members on entitlements, legislation, employer and government processes and policy. This also includes providing information on Union policies and processes for members and potential members. UnionLink Advisors identify potential organising issues and workplace delegates/activists through their contact with members and delegates. Advisors are expected to follow-up on workplace and member issues, make recommendations and support members and delegates with resolution of these. UnionLink Advisors are required to be fully conversant with the union's telephone and computer systems. They are also required to input, extract, collate and manage data and information on the Union's data bases and are expected to identify and report potential issues and trends in the workplace. As team members, UnionLink Advisors participate in planning and development activities and undertake other duties as required. At Level 4, the UnionLink Advisor by virtue of their experience operates with some autonomy and is expected to be fully conversant with all relevant entitlements, legislation, employer and government processes and policies and Union processes and policies. At this level, Advisors are required to operate proactively in engaging members, including identifying potential organising issues and following up on potential workplace delegates/activists. They deliver nominated training to Union staff and members and provide support and advice to delegates. Advisors at this level may also be called upon to provide representation to members in meetings with the employer. At Level 5, as well as the duties set out above, the UnionLink Advisor operates with minimal supervision. This Advisor researches the interpretation of complex industrial issues, legislation, employer and government policy and process matters and plans strategies to maximise outcomes for the Union. This Advisor develops, coordinates and conducts training for Union staff and members. The role also includes the provision of mentoring/coaching support for team members and delegates. UnionLink operates as a close-knit team and Advisors at all levels are expected to contribute to and work within this team.
